Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The conflict of interest policy covers interested persons, including any director, principal officer, member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, anyone who has a direct or indirect financial interest, or a family member of any of the foregoing. He/She shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon, and the remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. If it does, the remaining board or committee members shall discuss and vote on the transaction or arrangement. If appropriate, a disinterested person or committee may investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. The governing board or committee shall then determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If this is not reasonably possible, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. To ensure that the
