Management has concluded that any tax positions which would not meet the more-likely-than-not criterion of financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 740-10, Accounting for Income Taxes, would be immaterial to the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not include any provision for uncertain tax positions, and no related interest or penalties have been recorded or accrued. Federal and state tax returns of the Organization are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date on which the returns are filed.

He/She shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon, and the remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. If it does, the remaining board or committee members shall discuss and vote on the transaction or arrangement. If appropriate, a disinterested person or committee may investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. The governing board or committee shall then determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If this is not reasonably possible, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. To ensure that the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted.
